

HEATHCOTE JUNCTION, VIC 18 GLENBURNIE AVENUE

POSITION, PRICE, LIFESTYLE

Set on a well-maintained half acre (approx.), this storybook-style home, with rich timber features and gorgeous interiors, creates the perfect place for a relaxed lifestyle. Open plan living and dining enjoys the benefits of wood heating and a split system air-conditioned, with views to the lush and private gardens. The country style kitchen with electric appliances and dishwasher is practical in design and storage. The bathroom is just gorgeous and the laundry has plenty of space and light. There's a study/rumpus upstairs and a deep verandah out the back that overlooks a level paved courtyard for easy outdoor living. The shed is to die for with painted concrete, huge built-in bar, fully lined and its own pergola for BBQ's. But wait, there's a separate self-contained studio in keeping with the design and presentation of the main house, ideal for guests or extended family. The home is fully insulated and sealed to keep out vermin and the elements making it beautiful all year round. There's even a playground and a double carport to complete the package. Set in a tightly held area only minutes
