

2 ROBINIA COURT KILMORE, VIC

EXECUTIVE FAMILY PRESTIGE

Situated on an imperiously large allotment of over 1000sqm within the tightly held Managum precinct, this immaculately presented family-focussed home sets a picturesque presence on the high side of the street. Surrounded by the stunning established homes and gardens, with a park nearby, and minutes to golf course, hospital and quality schools, this well balanced residence caters for most families big or small. Four oversized bedrooms, the master being separate from the others with walk-in robe, ensuite and a really lovely view out the front. There's a real sense of luxury as you enter into a spacious foyer, and flexibility in the floor plan with a focus on space and light. A generous family/meals area is open plan with the very large hostess kitchen featuring walk-in pantry and beautiful timber cabinetry. The main lounge is huge while a rumpus at the rear can be closed off to hide the kid's toys or second TV. North facing windows across all living spaces overlook the patio and fresh, tidy gardens with little maintenance required. With all the luxury items one expects in an executive home in this neighbourhood including ducted heating and cooling, quality window dressing, polished solid timber floors, high ceilings and remote double garage door to name a few. It's not hard to see why this quality home is only being offered for th
