

12 Stanley Street WALLAN, VIC

READY TO DEVELOP

This near-level residential land is located in a premium central Wallan position with a site area of approximately 3330sqm with all services available. There is a wonderful and rare opportunity here to develop (STCA) or simply build a home and enjoy the open space. Two street frontages lend for future value and opportunity so be the smart one that secures that future and keeps the opportunities for your own benefit.
