HOGAN HISTORY

Have you ever dreamed of owning a part of Victoria's Oldest Inland Town? Well now is your opportunity!

Erected in circa 1860, this charming cottage has been well loved by many generations. The front facade is tuck-pointed brickwork and the cottage once housed a seamstress business. Originally owned by the Hogan family from the early 1880s until the late 1930s, this property has seen Kilmore grow into the town you see today.

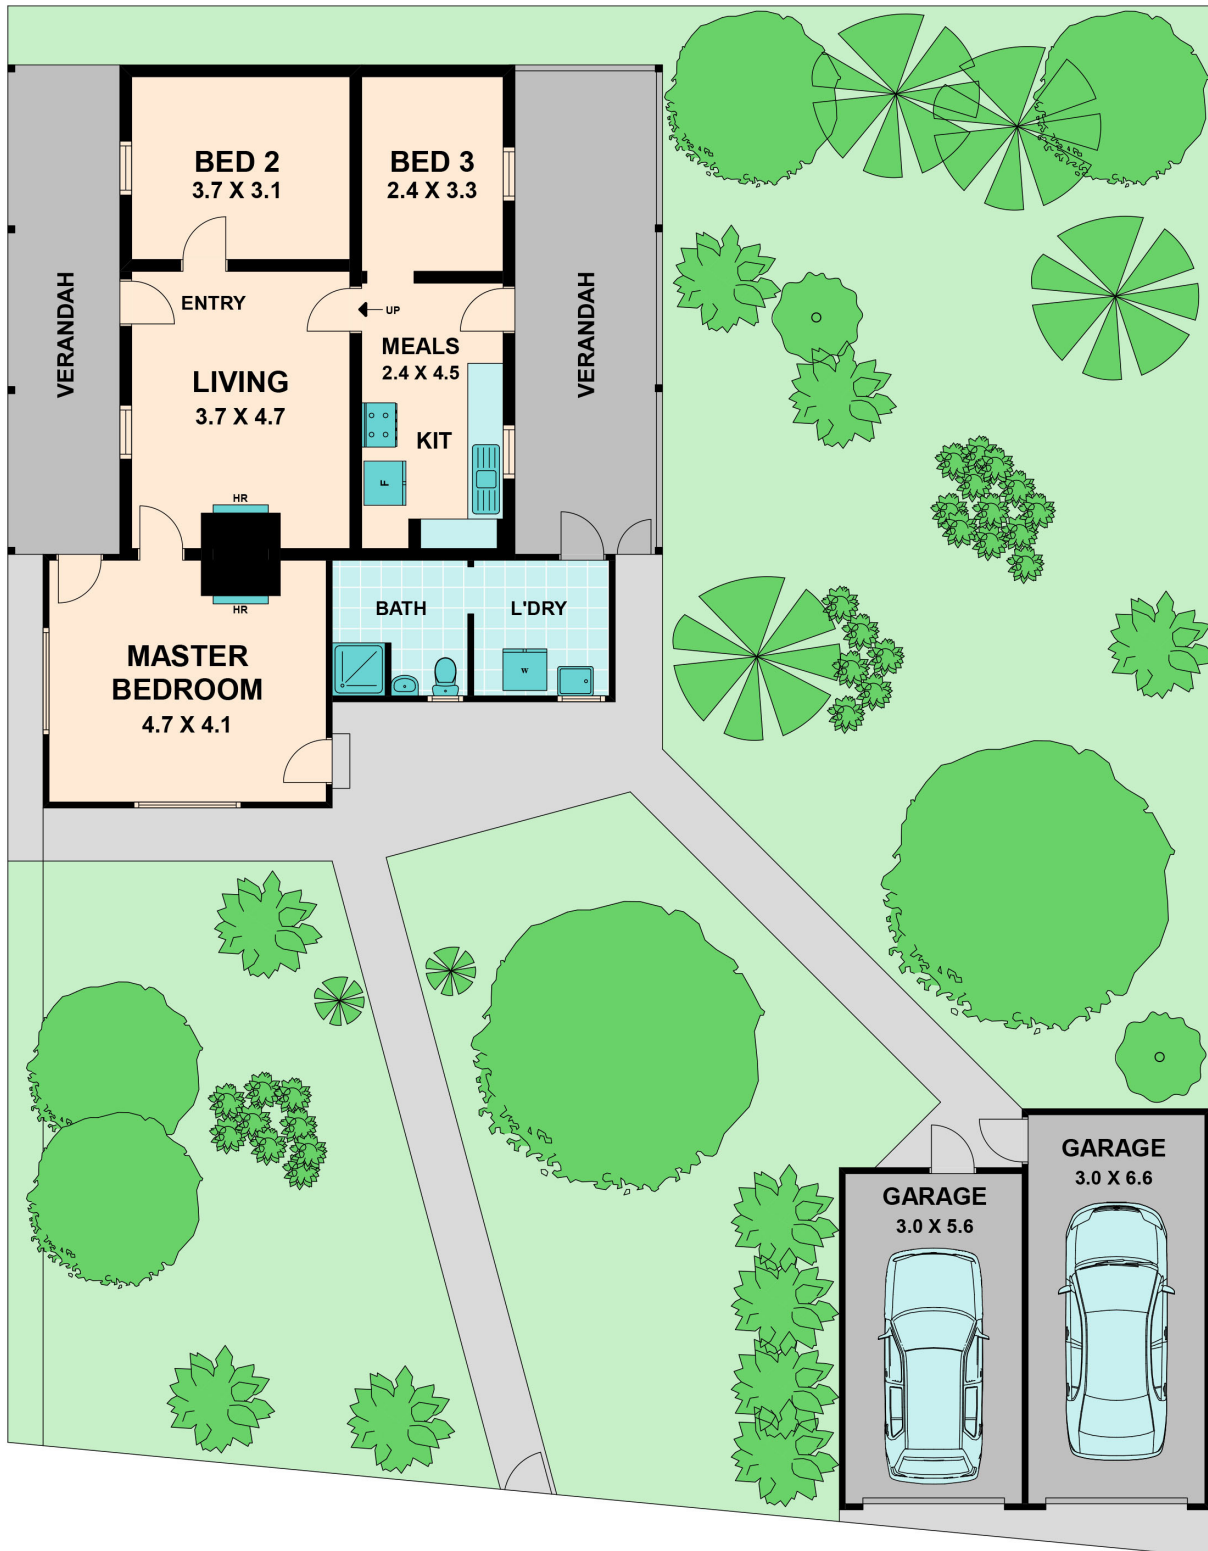

Perfectly tucked away, this hidden gem is situated on approximately 470m² and is located only a few steps away from all that our Historical Kilmore has to offer. It has immediate access to the new mall.

The cottage itself offers a generous master bedroom with external access, two additional bedrooms, combined kitchen/meals area and a separate lounge.
